

PTQ Minutes - February 8, 2022

Meeting called to order at 6:36 pm by Co-President Lois Wilhelm

There were 43 members present

Co-Vice President Diane Neises presented gifts to outgoing board members present - Linda Jagodinski and Debbie Sullivan.

Secretary's Report by Julia Stavran. Minutes of the January 25, 2022 meeting were read with one clarification sent by Pat Gaska by email. Her two quilts will be on exhibit at the Wisconsin Museum of Quilts and Fiber Arts from May 5 - July 24, 2022. No other corrections or additions.

Treasurer's Report by Lois as Linda Maly could not be at the meeting. No major changes from previous report.

Membership Report by Margie Mech. There are a number of past members who haven't paid 2022 dues.

Vice President's Report by Diane Neises and Pat Taylor. Diane gave an update of upcoming meetings. January to March newsletter Diane stated that there will be many classes coming up with a quick turnaround time for sign-up. She will be putting information out on the website and facebook page for members to preview. Pat discussed plans to have a guild rummage sale on April 26 at the day meeting. Members will price their own items in whole dollars. A percentage will be taken by the guild to be used for donation or program costs. More details will be coming. Start decluttering your space now for rummage sale or Quilt College raffle baskets.

President's Report by Lois Wilhelm.

- Cathy Teske volunteered to print name tags. Plans are to change format slightly and all members will be able to get the new name to make into a name tag.
- Lois reminded members of show and tell incentive
- Lois discussed the "Stay and Stitch" after the morning meetings. At the request of members to do this before the evening meeting this possibility was checked out with the church. Since the church is not open before the evening meeting we were told that this would not be feasible.

Committee Reports

Quilt College Kai Oelke reminded us of date and location.

Community Quilts No report.

Newsletter Sandy Block requested items for the next newsletter to be sent to her as soon as possible with end of February as the deadline.

Friendship Block Lois Wilhelm now has a label made for members to sign as they turn in the block they made for her.

Long Range Planning Committee Volunteers still needed to arrange for speakers that can't be booked within the 2 year term of the Vice President. Many well known quilters are booked into 2023. As a followup to brainstorming session at last meeting Jane Kellerman had checked with Judy Hasheider who would be willing to come to our guild.

New Business Lois has received info on a new retreat house that sleeps 8 on the shores of Lake Superior in Ironwood, Michigan. She will put this info on our members' information sites.

Meeting adjourned at 6:55 pm.

Program on strip piecing method presented by Jane Kellerman for skill builder blocks.

Show and Tell followed (24 members)

Respectfully submitted,

Julia Stavran, PTQ Secretary
