Committee Reports

Quilt College Joan Pagel reported that registrations closed as of September 1. No refunds will be given, however, one can find a replacement (who will have to take classes chosen by the original registrant). Joan Pagel reported that there are 55 guild members registered; 3 states are represented and 75 different cities. Joan Klosinski announced that due to a family commitment she needs to find a replacement for her registration. Please contact Joan Klosinski if you or someone else you know would like to take her place. Anyone interested in volunteering on the day of the event should contact Kai Oelke.

Community Quilts Quilt tying will begin after the day meetings in September and October. Maureen will demo a new tying knot - the Amish knot. Diane Neises will confirm that we are able to extend the use of the meeting room into the afternoon.

Newsletter No report.

Friendship Block Wendy Waraksa thanked everyone who submitted a block - Easy Card Tricks. Drawing was held and Sheila Frey is the new winner and will choose a pattern for her blocks.

Holiday Party Committee No Report

Treehaven Retreat Pat Taylor announced that the deadline is October 10. No registrations will be accepted after that date. Cancellations will be subject to linen and meal costs assessed by Treehaven.

New Business None
